RE: Service of process in Singapore.

Dear Ms. Verducci:

Thank you for contacting APS. We've served tens of thousands of documents abroad and are more than willing to assist you with serving process in Singapore. APS has been handling international service of process requests since 1981. Our experience tells us that foreign governments, laws and treaties are changing all the time. Since we handle such a large volume of requests, we are usually one of the first entities to know about these changes.

Please read the following bolded section carefully. It provides information on current events which may affect service.

Compliance of the foreign officials and timeframe for service via letter rogatory is unknown. APS will do follow-ups only for the first two years after submission to the State Department.

Singapore is not party to any international treaty with respect to service of process. The diplomatic method of service is pursuant to Letters Rogatory (28 U.S.C. 1781 (a)(2); F.R.C.P. 4(f)(2)(B)). A letter rogatory ("LR") is a formal request from a U.S. court to a foreign court asking for judicial assistance. There is a specific format and process that must be followed. An alternative method for service of process is outlined below.

The entire Letters Rogatory process normally takes 6 - 12 months or longer for service in Singapore. If the action is pending in state court, APS recommends obtaining an extension from your trial judge, so that a minimum of 365 days are available to the foreign government for completing service. Expedited in-house processing is available for an additional fee.

In order that we may begin processing your request, please send the following:

COVER LETTER - Please include all of the following:

- the requested service(s) of APS (e.g., LR or Alternative Service, translations, investigation);
- the name and street address of the defendant(s) to be served – note: If you do not have a valid address, APS has investigators around the world and can assist you;
- any court imposed deadlines relating to service of process;

TWO COURT-CERTIFIED AND TWO PHOTOCOPIES OF YOUR DOCUMENTS FOR SERVICE, PER SERVE- Summons, Complaint, Exhibits and any other court-required attachments.

PAYMENT - The following fees represent our standard charges. Since APS operates on a prepaid basis, please be aware that no processing can begin before payment is received.

Letters Rogatory Service	$525.00
(each add'l service request in the same country).....	$275.00
Additional Fee imposed by the US State Department (per service request).....	$735.00

Alternative Service

Service of process may also be pursued in Singapore via a non-diplomatic alternative method. It is important to note that service via this method must be handled properly. This is not an assignment for your local process server. It could result in a challenge by the defendant and a Motion to Quash/Dismiss your action. CAG works with you even through the preparation of a response to any challenges to service.

In order for CAG to process your Alternative Service request, please provide the following:

- (1) A cover letter as described above;
- (2) Two photocopies of the documents for service, unless your court requires that certified or original documents be served;
- (3) Payment. The following fees represent our standard charges for service in major metropolitan areas. If your defendant is outside these areas, additional fees may be necessary for travel expenses.

Alternative Service (per location)	$1,560.00
(each add'l defendant at same address, if sub-service permitted).....	$780.00

Alternative service normally takes six to nine weeks, however, this can be expedited for additional fees.

Pursuing service on a defendant in a foreign country is a serious undertaking. Let APS help you cut through the red-tape and confusion. We can do all the work for you and let you focus on the other aspects of the litigation. With U.S. courts pushing for quicker turn-around times and setting increasingly shorter deadlines, every day makes a difference. We know what the foreign governments will and will not allow. If necessary, APS can provide affidavits to assist you with a motion to counter any court-imposed time constraints that cannot be reasonably met.

If you have any further questions regarding this matter, please do not hesitate to call.

Sincerely,

Josh Cobb
